

North Carolina Association of Hazardous Materials Responders

2009 South Atlantic Fire and Hazmat Expo
Saturday August 22 at 10:00 am
Raleigh, N.C.

“Hazmat Challenge” Registration Form

If you are new to the Conference or to the Hazmat Challenge, this event is sponsored by the North Carolina Association of Hazardous Materials Responders and allows your Hazardous Materials Team to practice some typical response drills while competing against your colleagues from across the State of North Carolina.

Several vendors generally sponsor the event and provide prizes for the top three winning teams. Each member of the top six (6) teams will receive an individual medal indicating their placement in the competition.

Registration for the 2009 South Atlantic Fire and Hazmat Expo, Hazmat Challenge will ensure your team will receive a pre-competition packet including events in the challenge, rules of the competition, and a penalty schedule for non-conformance with competition rules.

The registration is free. Scott SCBAs, masks, and protective clothing (splash suits, boots, inner and outer gloves) will be provided for competition use. If your department uses Scott SCBA, you may bring and use your personal mask.

The competition will consist of four (4) person teams performing various hazmat entry related activities while wearing Level B PPE.
