

North Carolina Association of Hazardous Materials Responders

2017 South Atlantic Fire and Hazmat Expo
Saturday July 29 at 9:00 am
Charlotte, N.C.

“Hazmat Challenge” Registration Form

If you are new to the Conference or to the Hazmat Challenge, this event is sponsored by the North Carolina Association of Hazardous Materials Responders and allows your Hazardous Materials Team to practice some typical response drills while competing against your colleagues from across the State of North Carolina.

Each member will receive an individual certificate indicating their placement in the competition. The first place team will receive the Winners Trophy to take back to their home department for one (1) year.

Registration for the 2017 South Atlantic Fire and Hazmat Expo, Hazmat Challenge will ensure your team will receive a pre-competition packet including events in the challenge, rules of the competition, and a penalty schedule for non-conformance with competition rules.

The registration is free. This year Charlotte Fire Department will be providing Scott Bottles for those who wear Scott. Please bring own face mask. For those who do not wear Scott, please bring your own pack. Protective clothing (splash suits, boots, inner and outer gloves) will be provided for competition use.

The competition will consist of four (4) person teams performing various hazmat entry related activities while wearing Level B PPE.
